WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

This month we enter a special period of reflection and action for our Church's missionary efforts around the world. World Mission Sunday, to be celebrated on October 20, is a vital time for all Catholics to support the spread of the Gospel in mission territories. This year's theme, chosen by Pope Francis, is "Go and invite everyone to the banquet," emphasizing our call to bring God's love and message to every corner of the world.

The donations collected on World Mission Sunday are vital to sustaining the Church's mission in more than 1,150 territories where the Church is still struggling. Historically, the Church in the United States was once a beneficiary of these missionary efforts, and now we have the opportunity to give back and support our brothers and sisters around the world. Let us prepare our hearts and minds to fully engage in this mission throughout the month. Please make checks payable to: PROPAGATION OF THE FAITH.

Join us on November 9, 2024

WELCOME!

We warmly welcome all visitors to our parish, the heart of our Catholic faith-life in Ocean Beach since 1911. Thank you for joining us for Divine Worship. We hope you find ways to participate in our life in Christ through the various ministries we offer.

If you find yourself returning here, we invite you to join us as a member of our parish family. Use a registration form available at the HeartBeat Table or in the Parish Office, or go to the parish website:

GOSPEL MEDITATION

This week we hear of the man who inquires of Jesus how to obtain eternal life. He rejects Jesus’ invitation to sell his goods, give to the poor, and follow Jesus. Mark tells us this devastatingly sad line, “At this saying, his countenance fell and he went away sorrowful; for he had great possessions” (Mark 10:22). The man’s heart wasn’t centered on Jesus, but on his possessions. Perhaps Jesus intuited this. Now, we don’t know if Jesus intended to actually make him go through with it, like God’s call to test Abraham’s willingness to sacrifice Isaac. But sadly, in this case the willingness was not there to entrust everything to Jesus. And this made the man deeply sad.

For most of us, the literal dispossessing of our goods is not our call. But as Christians, a consistent renouncing of them is. This week, especially if you’re noticing a persisting sadness, I invite you to hear Jesus calling you to acknowledge that none of your possessions are finally yours. They are God’s and on loan to you. We get so addicted to that stuffy and sad word, “mine.” At Mass, we rehearse this attitude of joyful detachment by giving bread, wine, and money to the Lord, as if to say, “Lord, all I have is yours.” And what we get back is a sadness-defeating joy beyond all description: knowing that He is ours, and we are His.

What possessions are pre-occupying you at the moment? Write them down. Intentionally offer them to the Lord at the next Mass you attend.

— Father John Muir

For more than 40 years, Birthline has served pregnant women and families with children age 6 and younger, providing diapers, children’s clothing and other essential items free of charge, as well as making referrals for such diverse needs as prenatal care, housing, education, employment, addiction recovery, and domestic violence prevention.

Birthline is in desperate need of new baby supplies and outfits, onsies — 0 to 9 months, newborn pacifiers, newborn hats and socks, gently used 0 to 9 months baby clothes and especially boys clothes, 18 months through 7 years.

LIVE THE LITURGY

“Who can be saved?” the apostles wonder. Who can be good enough? Smart enough? Holy enough? Jesus reminds them that no one can be — not without asking for help. We all need help to be holy. Never tire of asking for the help you need.

Prayer of Reliance on God

Oh Lord,
I entrust today’s challenges, fears, and uncertainties to You. I don’t know how I will do them. I don’t know that I can. But I know that You fill the gaps in my ability at every turn. And so, today, I turn to You again.
Amen.

SACRED HEART OF OB COMMUNITY DINNER & PANTRY

Our dinner serving schedule is EVERY OTHER TUESDAY. Our next Dinner services will be on Oct. 15th and 29th from 5:00 to 7:00 pm. Volunteers are needed. Please arrive and be available at 3:30 pm. Dinner service will begin at 5:00 pm. Clean up begins around 7:00 pm. This is a parish ministry that could use your support. If you wish to volunteer, you must be vaccinated and in good health.

Thank you for your help.

Stewardship as a Way of Life

Jesus offers a hard lesson regarding wealth and possessions in today's Gospel. The rich man whom he encountered could not part with his possessions as a condition to becoming a disciple of Jesus. Would our response be the same as the rich man? Do we place our trust in our money and possessions instead of trusting in God's generosity? Do we seek security in our possessions? Good stewards realize that their possessions must not possess them, lest those possessions block their relationship with the Lord.

"What's a shoulder's favorite sacramental?"

"The Scapular!"

"Scapular" actually means "shoulder" in Latin. Scapulars have changed through history, now they are small pieces of wool worn between the shoulders, reminders of devotion to God.
