WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

As we approach World Mission Sunday this October 20, it is important to remember the legacy of missionary works. The Church in the United States was once mission territory, backed by the generosity of Catholics around the world. Today, we continue this legacy by supporting the Pontifical Mission Societies and ensuring that the Gospel reaches all ends of the earth.

Our contributions help build and sustain communities of faith in places where the Church is still growing or facing persecution. As we reflect on this year's theme, "Go and Invite All to the Banquet," let us recommit ourselves to supporting our global Church family, emphasizing our call to bring God's love and message to every corner of the world.

Let us prepare our hearts and minds to fully engage in this mission throughout the month. Please make checks payable to: PROPAGATION OF THE FAITH.

Thanksgiving Baskets Collection

Please help us fill 35 baskets with the items needed for a Thanksgiving dinner for needy families. We will be collecting non-perishable food items for this Loaves & Fishes food drive October 20 through November 21. Collection boxes are located at the church, parish office & pre-school.

If you can donate a turkey, please call Pat Katka at 619-222-9648. Monetary donations can be dropped off at the parish office or placed in a plain envelope in the collection basket.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

From a young age, I loved winning at sports. I confess that winning was a bit of an addiction. It was probably coming from a deep desire for attention and affirmation from others. Nevertheless, it was a driving motivation for me. Baseball, soccer, track, table tennis, and whatever else I could find was a chance to win. Competition was my obsession.

Another John, and his brother James, demonstrate a kind of wildly competitive obsession when they dare to say to Jesus: “Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory” (Mark 10:37). Their audacity arouses an indignant reaction from the other apostles, who are clearly raw that these two are out to win the highest spots.

How does Jesus respond to us in our desires for greatness? The same way he does to James and John. He does not criticize them for their desire for glory. But he does highlight their ignorance (“you do not know what you are asking.”). Then he invites them to be champions of true greatness: by drinking not the cup of worldly victory, but his cup of self-giving suffering love, to be the “slave of all.” The true winners are slaves of love. This week, dare to tell Jesus what your ambitions truly are. Hear him call you to an even greater victory.

— Father John Muir

For more than 40 years, Birthline has served pregnant women and families with children age 6 and younger, providing diapers, children’s clothing and other essential items free of charge, as well as making referrals for such diverse needs as prenatal care, housing, education, employment, addiction recovery, and domestic violence prevention.

Birthline is in desperate need of new baby supplies and outfits, onsies — 0 to 9 months, newborn pacifiers, newborn hats and socks, gently used 0 to 9 months baby clothes and especially boys clothes, 18 months through 7 years.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Do you want to be like Christ? Pray for a servant’s heart, for hands that never tire of giving, for arms that hold others up. Pray for feet strong enough to walk the path of a servant, in the footsteps of the one who came not to be served but to serve.

Stewardship as a Way of Life

Jesus offers a hard lesson regarding wealth and possessions in today's Gospel. The rich man whom he encountered could not part with his possessions as a condition to becoming a disciple of Jesus. Would our response be the same as the rich man? Do we place our trust in our money and possessions instead of trusting in God's generosity? Do we seek security in our possessions? Good stewards realize that their possessions must not possess them, lest those possessions block them. In today's Gospel Jesus teaches his disciples that whoever wishes to be great among them must be a servant, just as he came to be a servant. Today is World Mission Sunday— a reminder of our call to be good stewards of the Gospel and to support those who make evangelization their servant ministry throughout the world. Not to be a servant of the Gospel would be poor stewardship. But how do we serve the Gospel? How do we support others who serve those who have never heard the Gospel or who have chosen to reject the Gospel of Jesus Christ? Our relationship with the Lord.
