BETHLEHEM WOOD ART SALE April 5th and 6th in Courtyard

Beautiful handmade olivewood religious articles, made by Catholic families in Bethlehem and Jerusalem, will be on sale in the courtyard after all Masses on April 5th and 6th. The Christian population in the Holy Land has dropped from over 65% to under 2% just within the past ten years. The crafting and selling of this beautiful religious art is their primary source of livelihood. Please stop by the tables and consider purchasing their handmade rosaries, statues, crosses, and nativities.

Prayer of a Father's Blessing

God who wills good things for your children,
 Help me to trust that You will be faithful.
 God who will not leave me,
 Help me to seek You, too.
 God who is ever-waiting for me,
 Help me to run straight towards You.

Amen.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

A man looking a bit downtrodden approached me as I filled my car's gas tank. He asked, "May I share with you my testimony about how good God is?" "OK," I skeptically answered. He went on to tell me that he had been an alcoholic and drug addict, and that God had healed him; now he was four years sober. He said, "I didn't deserve it, but now I'm a different person. God is so good! Have a terrific Tuesday!" A few minutes later, as I drove away, I saw him smiling and handing a homeless person some money. I was confronted with a choice: either he was a total fraud or God had changed him. Something had happened to him, and it didn't seem fake. Maybe it was God.

When Jesus heals the man born blind, the man becomes a challenge to everyone who meets him. They must decide. Is he the same blind person who they knew before? Who healed him and how? And what is the status of the one who can heal such infirmities? We shouldn't be surprised at the storm of doubt, hatred and animosity that swirls around the healed man - so it often goes when Jesus heals someone even to this day.

Like we often do, the religious leaders confronting the healed man declare that God is not at work. They ask with mocking superiority and dismissive disdain, "You were born totally in sin, and are you trying to teach us?" (John 9:34). And they cast him out. When Jesus clearly works in our lives, in us or around us, we should accept it, and give praise and thanks for this wonderful manifestation of his goodness.

Lenten challenge: Think of one way the Lord has healed you. Perhaps he healed a form of selfishness, a physical ailment, or something else. This week, find a person to whom you can share that testimony, and share it. Don't worry if they don't accept it was God who did it.

— Father John Muir

Stewardship as a Way of Life

Today we hear one of the most beloved stories in the Gospel of Luke, Jesus' parable of the Prodigal Son. Reconciliation is a prominent theme. Seeing the younger son returning to him, the son who left the family and squandered his inheritance, the compassionate father runs to embrace him. Jesus offers us a vision of a loving God who is merciful and forgiving when we, through our own sinfulness, leave his presence, and then through repentance, return to him. The remainder of the Lenten season offers us an opportunity to reflect on God's compassion and our need for reconciliation. Consider celebrating the sacrament of reconciliation and experience God's loving embrace and forgiveness.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Sacred Heart Vacation Bible School (VBS) will be the week of July 14–18! This year the theme will transport the children back to Egypt. They will be learning about Joseph's story from the Old Testament book of Genesis—how Joseph went from being a prisoner to living in the palace of the Egyptian king.

VBS is for children from 4 to 11 years old. We do need children from ages 12 through 18 years as junior leaders and adults to help with our program. For more information please contact Stephen Williams.

Children's Easter Egg Hunt, Sunday, April 20, 2025

For this hunt we need parishioners to help. Donations of plastic eggs and wrapped candy are requested. It is through our parish's generosity we are able to provide this experience for our little ones. Donated eggs can be brought to the parish rectory, Monday ~ Friday, 8:30 through 4:00 pm.
