Live the Gospel with Compassion

3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER

Jesus said to them, "Come, have breakfast." And none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they realized it was the Lord. Jesus came over and took the bread and gave it to them, and in like manner the fish. - Jn 21:12-13

STAINED GLASS WINDOW UPGRADE

Many thanks to Joe Martinez, of Willet Studios, who repaired and refurbished our beautiful stained glass windows for us. Thanks also to the Knights of Columbus and an anonymous donor whose generosity funded the project. We are so grateful!

Time and Talent Salute:

Grateful for God's gifts, we thank Carol Sanders, June Sprosty, Janice Teixeira, Denise Therkalsen and all their volunteer helpers for providing delicious luncheon meals to our Senior Citizens every first Friday during the winter months of the year. Thank you for caring!

NOVENA OF MASSES FOR MOTHERS

A Novena of Masses for Mothers will be celebrated on May 11 through May 19. If you would like to have your mother, living or deceased, remembered in these Masses, please fill out a Spiritual Bouquet envelope found in the pews, and place it in the collection basket or return it to the parish office by May 8th. They will be placed on the altar during the Novina.

Special Mother's Day envelopes are available in the church vestibule.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

I eat breakfast. If I don't have something substantial, I'm fading by midmorning. Breakfast is my key meal because it sets up my physical wellbeing for the rest of the day.

Spiritually speaking, we need sustenance to get us going. This is true for the Apostles in this Sunday's remarkable Gospel reading. The risen Jesus makes his third appearance to them in the early morning light and calls, "Come, have breakfast" (John 21:12). The exhausted and cold fishermen sit, and he feeds them bread and fish as the dawn breaks. They are overwhelmed by his presence to the point of awestruck silence. As they eat, their bodies and their hearts come alive. Once refreshed by their morning meal, they will be ready to feed others — indeed, the whole world — with the love of the risen Jesus. But first, they need breakfast from him.

Do you realize how essential early morning prayer is? Jesus desires to refresh us every morning with his word of love, with his grace-filled presence. This week, hear Jesus calling to you: "Come, have breakfast!" Embrace some form of spiritual, meditative practice each morning for spiritual strength to get you going.

In Memoriam

Frank Barrancotto and family were blessed to celebrate Easter together. On April 25th, 2025, he went peacefully to his heavenly reward, surrounded by his loving family. Frank's Funeral Mass will be celebrated on Saturday, May 24th at 10 am at Sacred Heart Church, with reception to follow in the parish hall.

Frank was a kind, generous, faith-filled man and a bright light in our lives. Though he is gone from our sight, his light will never fade. We pray for Frank's family.

May the Angels lead Frank into paradise.

Stewardship as a Way of Life

This weekend's Gospel reading from John enjoys a number of themes not least of which has to do with hearing Christ's call to live differently but returning to our "comfort zones." Even after seeing the risen Lord and receiving his blessing and missionary charge, his disciples go back to what they were doing before Jesus first called them. Instead of continuing Jesus' ministry, they return to the life they knew. When faced with the choice between embarking on a new way of life or staying where life is familiar and comfortable, they chose the latter. Good stewards know that Christ has called them to open their hearts and live in a different way. How often do we retreat from the Lord's call so that we may remain with what is comfortable and familiar?
