ACTIVITIES & HAPPENINGS

Time and Talent Salute:

Grateful for God's gifts, we give heartfelt thanks to local artist Lynn Reeves for generously sharing his Pope Francis sculpture with us. Thanks also to Isali and Manuel Alsina and Maria and Will Stout, whose friendship with Lynn made its display possible here at Sacred Heart and who provided the beautiful flowers. We are so blessed and so grateful!

A Prayer for Mothers
By Heidi Busse

*All-loving God,
We give you thanks and praise for mothers
young and old.
We pray for young mothers who give life and count toes and tend to our every need;
may they be blessed with patience and tenderness to care for their families and themselves with great joy.
We pray for our own mothers who have
nurtured and cared for us;
may they continue to guide
in strong and gentle ways.
We remember mothers who are separated
from their children because of war,
poverty, or conflict;
may they feel the loving embrace
of our God who wipes every tear away.
We pray for women who are not mothers
but still love and shape us with motherly care and compassion.
We remember mothers, grandmothers,
and great grandmothers,
who are no longer with us
but who live forever in our memory
and nourish us with their love.
We ask you, O God, to bless all mothers this day.
Amen*

NOVENA OF MASSES FOR MOTHERS

A Novena of Masses for Mothers will be celebrated on May 11 through May 19. If you would like to have your mother, living or deceased, remembered in these Masses, please fill out a *Spiritual Bouquet* envelope found in the pews, and place it in the collection basket or return it to the parish office by May 8th. They will be placed on the altar during the Novena.

Special Mother's Day cards/envelopes are available in the church rectory.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

A few years back, I felt as if I couldn't hear God's voice the way I used to. The words in the Bible seemed like cold ink on a page. Prayer felt like sitting anxiously in a lonely room. I was worried — how could I, a priest, preach or help others if I couldn't hear God's voice? It went on for months.

Then a friend encouraged me to go on a retreat and spend as much time as possible in silence. After a day or two of quiet prayer, I noticed gentle but clear thoughts of repentance in two specific areas of my life. I asked God for the grace to change, and I went to confession. Suddenly, the divine silence that haunted me was filled with a sense of God's closeness and goodness. I realized, gratefully, that God had been speaking to me in the quiet voice of my conscience.

This week we hear Jesus say, "My sheep hear my voice. I know them and they follow me" (John 10:27). Jesus links the hearing of his voice to following him. He speaks to us in our conscience in an intimate, personal way, when we most need to hear him. When you feel deaf to God's voice, perhaps it is time to listen in silence for His voice in your conscience calling you to hear and follow the Good Shepherd of your soul.

Stewardship as a Way of Life

Jesus, the "Good Shepherd," makes a promise in today's Gospel to those who hear his voice and follow him. He promises them eternal life. Amidst all the other voices that clamor for attention in their daily lives, the voices that make demands, give advice, seek to persuade or like to gossip, good stewards listen for the Good Shepherd's voice. The other voices are legion and we do not always recognize how contrary they are to the voice of the Good Shepherd. Good stewards know that it takes a compassionate heart, a habit of prayer, a hunger for the Eucharist and a love of neighbor for them to truly hear the voice of the Good Shepherd. What might we do in our daily lives to prepare us to more authentically hear the voice of the Good Shepherd?

"When God Created Mothers"

When the Good Lord was creating mothers, He was into His sixth day of "overtime" when the angel appeared and said, "You're doing a lot of fiddling around on this one." And God said, "Have you read the specs on this order?" She has to be completely washable, but not plastic. Have 180 moveable parts... all replaceable. Run on black coffee and leftovers. Have a lap that disappears when she stands up. A kiss that can cure anything from a broken leg to a disappointed love affair, and six pairs of hands."

The angel shook her head slowly and said, "Six pairs of hands... no way."

"It's not the hands that are causing me problems," God remarked, "it's the three pairs of eyes that mothers have to have."

"That's on the standard model?" asked the angel. God nodded. One pair that sees through closed doors when she asks, 'What are you kids doing in there?' when she already knows. Another here in the back of her head that sees what she shouldn't but what she has to know, and of course the ones here in front that can look at a child when he goofs up and say,

'I understand and I love you' without so much as uttering a word."

"God," said the angel touching His sleeve gently, "Get some rest, tomorrow..."

"I can't," said God, "I'm so close to creating something so close to myself. Already I have one who heals herself when she is sick... can feed a family of six on one pound of hamburger... and can get a nine year old to stand under a shower."

The angel circled the model of a mother very slowly. "It's too soft," she sighed.

"But tough!" said God excitedly. "You can imagine what this mother can do or endure."

"Can it think?"

"Not only can it think, but it can reason and compromise," said the Creator.

Finally, the angel bent over and ran her finger across the cheek. "There's a leak," she pronounced. "I told You that You were trying to put too much into this model." "It's not a leak," said the Lord, "It's a tear." "What's it for?"

"It's for joy, sadness, disappointment, pain, loneliness, and pride."

"You are a genius," said the angel. Somberly, God said, "I didn't put it there."
